New York Dry Goods. New York Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The tone of the dry goods market shows steady improvement. Bills are again being paid in New York exchange and collections are better. The inquiry for goods shows a slight increase, but the volume of new business passing is light. Haw silk is lower and manufacturers are not buying. The jobling trade is beginning to feel the offects of colder weather and the close approach of the holiday trads.

MARKET MEN PROUD OF UTAH'S FERTILITY

at Any Time of the

"It is hard to tell when the vegetable season is over in Utah," said a marketman Monday, "because it is so easy to raise things here that vegetables and fruits come into the market at all times of the year without regard to season, as in other places."

A glance at the display along market row confirms the statement. Here are cucumbers, as large and green as those raised in the spring in most places, although it is now the beginning of December. These sell for 10c each. And stacked and piled along market row are vegetables and fruits as fine as any to be seen in the most renowned and productive localities which make a specialty of boosting products, and these are raised in Utah. The land of this State, which has for so long been neglected and passed by as unsuitable, is now bringing forth fruit and vegetables as delicious as the most critical epicurean could wish for. The newly-grown Utah potatoes continue to come in from Davis county. These are rather small, but that probably is because the larger sizes are kept for saie later.

The grape fruit is at its best at this

These are rather small, but that probably is because the larger sizes are kept for sale later.

The grape fruit is at its best at this time of the year, and recent receipts are unusually large and handsome. The last shipment of Concord grapes which came in from northesstern Pennsylvania met little demand. The dealers said several weeks ago that there would be no more grapes put on the market this season. Several of the market this season. Several of the market stands are making a specialty of figs at this time. The best varieties are imported from Turkey. Some of these are as large as a hand, and in flavor are superior to the Callfornia products. They are packed in narrow boxes about four inches wide and probably three feet long. The figs are so arranged that they can be stripped of as they are desired. Dates are also a feature of the market and are exhibited in several varieties, but all of the imported kinds are sold for 20c a pound.

WHEAT MARKET WEAK THROUGHOUT SESSION

From Reports of Various Influences.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The wheat market was weak throughout the day, with the exception of a short period about the middle of the session, when buying by shorts, based on a raily in stocks caused moderate strength for a short time. At the start the market was bearishly affected by easy cables and by weakness of the stock list. As the session advanced absence of demand from exporters, who asserted that foreign bids for American wheat was very disquieting, inspired additional sales. An increase of 1,523,000 bushels in the visible supply, compared with a decrease of 88,000 bushels at the corresponding time last year, was another encouraging factor for the bears.

The market closed weak. Deliveries on December contracts were estimated at 750,000 bushels. May opened ½% to ½% ic lower at $1.022 to $1.031, advanced to $1.031, and then declined to $1.02. The close was at $1.022 to $1.032, advanced to $1.031, and then declined to $1.02. The close was at $1.022 to $1.032, advanced to $1.034, advance of one-half to one cent in the price of cash grain stimulated additional purchases of the options. The market late in the day was bearishly affected by the weakness of wheat, all of the early gains being lost on realizing sales. The close was easy. May opened a shade to $60,000 bushels. Country acceptions, but the market was firm the greater part of the day. The strength of corn was the chief buillish influence. Deliveries on December contracts were estimated at 500,000 bushels. Country acceptiones were light and the movement was again small. May opened a shade lower at 50,000 bushels. Country acceptiones were light and the movement was again small. Provisions were strong, owing to a 15 20c advance in live hogs, and to small deliveries of December contracts. The deliveries of pork were said to have been 750 barrels. Commission houses reported an increase in investment purchases. The bulk of trade was in May deliveries. At the close May pork was up 2½c at $12.97½ Lard was up 17½c at $7.75.
